Appeal on judicial proceedings dismissed by Superior Court of Quebec and Court of Appeal of Quebec

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 27 Kentenhkó:wa/November 2026) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to inform the community that Elvin "Jason" Diabo (the claimant), a community member operating under the name Wild Wild West, filed an application for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada the judicial proceeding that was dismissed by the Superior Court of Quebec in May 2026, and by the Court of Appeal of Quebec in September 2026.

In May 2026, the Superior Court of Quebec dismissed the seeking of damages sought by the claimant and ordered the occupant to vacate the premises and remove all personal property and structures. The Court of appeal of Quebec, in its September 2026 decision, determined that the appeal was bound to fail and dismissed it.

As part of its ongoing commitment to transparency, the MCK is advising the community of this outcome regarding court proceedings.
