Story Line/Notes: Everywhere in Quebec, in the depths of the villages there are legends, surprising rumors, unsolved mysteries or intriguing facts transformed by the years. These old or more recent stories feed the collective imagination of a region and Secrets de Villages invites you to discover these unknown journeys in a journey throughout the Province. Where surprises can arise at every turn. In the form of investigations, this documentary series of 10, 30-minute episodes seeks to shed light on a multitude of fascinating stories that are often overlooked. What is true? How did it all start? Who has privileged information? Where to find new clues? Questions advance the quest and often raise new questions. The idea here is to learn more, demystify and be confused, but above all to discover our regions through fascinating stories that hold their share of surprises.
