On Monday, April 14, Grand Chief Mike Delisle will in Ottawa at the Aboriginal Standing Committee on Specific Claims to address the proposed Bill C-30.

The following agenda items were discussed:

New Sports Complex Refridgeration System

Due to the amount of the contract, Chiefs had to officially delegate responsibility to sign this contract to Tom Morris, Associate Executive Director of (Sports & Recreation & Social Development). The overall contract is close to $1.2 million. Over $300,000 will be spent this year.

Gaming Commission Re-Appointed

The official mandate for the existing interim Commission was up. The Council Table extended the existing interim Commission another 90 days.

Land Allotments

A Community Member's land allotment was transferred to an estate and a short discussion took place on other Land issues not related to the subject.

Community Visioning

A decision was made to move forward with the Community Visioning process. Christine Zachary-Deom will be the lead technician on this file. An Advisory body will be put in place, consisting of Melanie Gilbert, Dodie Gilbert, Alana Goodleaf-Rice, Grand Chief Mike Delisle and Chief Peggy Mayo.
