Chiefs Out of Office

Several chiefs will be on vacation next week. Grand Chief Delisle informed the table of an upcoming meeting with Quebec Native Affairs Minister Benoit Pelletier to follow up on the Seigneury file.

The following agenda items were discussed:

Litigation Case

Chief and Council met with MCK Legal services to discuss a specific case of litigation. Due to the nature of the discussion and the privacy of the individual, no information will be released at this time.

Chiefs' Priorities Presentation

Office of the Council of Chiefs Interim Coordinator Melanie Gilbert was in to present an update on the status of the Chiefs' priorities. (These were the priorities set by Chief and Council following an extensive survey on the topic created by community members and filled out by over 300 people). Many of the OCC staff were present for the discussions. It was decided that specific follow up is needed in the area of electoral reform.
