PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Social Assistance Program announces additional special benefits for clients

(Kahnawake – 8, Enniska/February 2023)

Due to rising costs and inflation, the Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke's Social Assistance Program wishes to announce that the following benefits/supplements will be distributed to Social Assistance clients in the next two months:

- Winter clothing benefit for all active clients and their dependants;
- Heating supplements (to be issued only to heads of households);
- Continuation of the inflation benefit (food and household supplies) for all active clients and their dependants

These special benefits/supplements are intended to assist clients with the increased cost of the above-listed items. The benefit will vary according to the number of clients per file. Additional information/details will be released to clients in the coming days.

For further information, please contact Social Assistance Program at 450-638-0500.
