TONIGHT – Indian Day School Settlement free ‘Executor and Administrator’ workshop

DRAFT For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 16, Enniska/February 2021) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to remind the community that a free Executor and Administrator workshop will take place tonight (Tuesday, February 16th) to assist those who are applying for settlements on behalf of deceased Kahnawa'kehró:non. Those wishing to participate must register in advance (details below).

For this workshop, Gowling WLG lawyers will walk participants through the forms, with a focus on power of attorney and estate claims – which means both those with and without wills.

The workshop will take place from 7:30pm to 9pm. This session is being offered in English. Following the presentation participants will be able to ask questions.

To register for the event, please go to the following:

Local assistance for matters related to the Indian Day Schools Settlement is available by contacting Louise Mayo, who is the Coordinator on behalf of the MCK, at 514-793-0662 or by email at louise.mayo@mck.ca. Please note that the MCK is not involved in the administration of the Settlement in any way, but is offering assistance to community members who are making applications.
