Vaccination clinics resume Tuesday

(Kahnawake – 21, Ohiarí:ha/June 2021)

The Kateri Memorial Hospital Centre (KMHC) wishes to remind the community that second doses of the Moderna vaccine are continuing to be administered at the Vaccinations Center located at the Mohawk Bingo on Highway 138 beginning tomorrow (Tuesday, June 22).

Please note that the elderly and others who require physical assistance can be dropped off at the front door. Security personnel are available to assist.

For those who have not yet received a confirmation notice for their second dose or would like to schedule their first dose, appointments can be made by calling 450-638-3930, extension 2295, or 2213. Please make sure to leave a message with your name and phone number as there is not always someone available to take your call at that moment.
