PRESS RELEASE

Clayton McComber Retires after 31 years of service

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 29, Ohiarikhó:wa/July 2024) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to congratulate Clayton McComber on his retirement. After a career of 31 years, his last day as an Infrastructure Operations and maintenance Worker at the Public Works Unit was Friday, July 26th.

Clayton began his career at MCK in 1992 as a Survey Crew Worker and, shortly after that, was hired as a Checkpoint Watchman. However, he has spent nearly 20 years as an Infrastructure Operations and Maintenance Worker.

"On behalf of everyone at Public Works, we congratulate Clayton on 31 years of outstanding service. You will be greatly missed by the crew, but we wish you the best on your well-earned retirement," said Michael Goodleaf, General Manager of Infrastructure Operation and Maintenance.

The MCK thanks Clayton for his years of service and wishes him all the best in his retirement.
