Various Community Meetings postponed in respect of recent tragedies

DRAFT - (Kahnawake – 27, Kenténha/October 2017)

Chief and Council wish to advise Kahnawà:kehró:non that the Fall Community Meeting has been rescheduled to Tuesday, November 14 2017. The meeting, which will be held at the Moose Lodge, was originally scheduled for 7, Kenténhkó:wa/November. The agenda will be announced shortly.

The Kahnawà:ke Language and Culture Network wishes to inform all Kahnawà:kehró:non that, in respect and consideration of all those affected by the recent tragic events that have taken place in our community, including a Fair organizer directly, the Language and Culture Fair scheduled for November 1st and 2nd will be postponed. New dates will be announced as soon as they are determined.

The Lands Unit will also postpone the first ever Community Conference on Kahnawà:ke Lands, originally scheduled for Wednesday, November 8th at the Moose Lodge. The Conference is the culmination of a thirty (30) week information campaign and consultation process that began in early spring 2017. A new date will be announced to the community when it is available.

The Special Women's Meeting organized with the goal of addressing recent tragic events in Kahnawà:ke scheduled for Wednesday, November 1st at the Golden Age Club. For more information please visit Connie Meloche's Facebook page (Connie Meloche, self-employed consultant). The MCK strongly supports this initiative and is distributing this information in the public interest.

The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke, on behalf of all the above mentioned groups/organizations, wish to extend sincere condolences to the families during this difficult time.
