Portfolio Updates for the Month:

February 2025

Infrastructure, Transportation & Operations (ITO) Portfolio: We had two bi-weekly meetings with Jacques Cartier Champlain Bridge Incorporated (JCCBI). Discussions regarding the Green Space Project. The community working group finalized the conceptual design. PlanIt will be presenting the conceptual design to the community for review and discussion. Discussions regarding upcoming works around the Federal Portion of the Mercier Bridge. The installation of Saving Lives Signage will be installed on the bridge. The signage will be in Kanien'ké:ha, English and French. We had an internal Transport meeting to discuss transport issues within the community. Meeting with Capital Unit to discuss upcoming Capital seasonal projects. The meeting with Saint Laurence Seaway Authority was reschedule to March. We had a meeting with Transport Canada regarding a concern within the community. We had an internal meeting to discuss the current Transport User Fees. Hydro Quebec will start pruning trees along the power lines on March 17. The pruning will take 4-6 weeks, starting in the new development moving west to the Chateauguay boundary. Four community members will be part of this workforce.

Health Portfolio: Attended the monthly Onkwata'karitáhtshera Table meeting at KSCS. I participated on the Community Wellness Plan Initiative (CWPI) selection Committee, to review project submissions. Meeting with the two community pharmacies to discuss NIHB medical prescriptions. The Kateri Memorial Hospital Centre monthly board meeting was cancelled due to lack of quorum. For clarification, I sit on the KMHC Board of Directors, Grand Chief Cody Diabo sits on the Kahnawà:ke Shakotiaa'takehnhas Community Services Board of Directors.

Social Supports & Development Portfolio: Due to the extra time required to review CWPI, I missed the Accessibility Policy Subgroup meeting.

Other activities during the month of February: Participated in the site visit to the new Cultural Centre. I did not attend the AFN Housing and Infrastructure Conference due to technical problems at the Toronto Airport. I missed my connecting flight to Calgary. The Press Scrum was cancelled.

February 2025

Governance: First meeting with the Governance Advisory Group scheduled for March 6, 2025. Governance Portfolio Special meeting was cancelled and rescheduled for March 19, 2025.

Justice: Two decision-makers have been appointed to the Administrative Tribunal. The official swearing in is being coordinated and should take place in March. The Disciplinary Measures Regulations for Decision-Makers (for the Administrative Tribunal) was re-opened to revisit the form of the investigation to be undertaken following receipt of a complaint. The Regulation was revised to be less adversarial and more like an inquiry. The revised version will be posted for another 30 day feedback period before proceeding to the next stage of the CDMRP. The feedback report for the Regulations Respecting Kahnawà:ke Judges has been finalized and will be posted on the legislation website. The Regulations will now undergo a legal review before being presented for enactment. Justice Services presented the budget for 2025-2026 to the portfolio chiefs. Finally, the request for a land designation for a community justice center is still pending. Kahnawà:ke Justice Commission Constitution review being conducted.

Cannabis file: Met with the Cannabis Health and Safety Committee to discuss expectations and importance of the committee as an advisory to the Cannabis Control Board. New organizational representatives to be formally confirmed.
