Abbey Diabo, new Director of the OCC

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 16 Onerahtókha/April 2025) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) is pleased to announce that Abbey Diabo is the successful candidate for the position of Director of the Office of the Council of Chiefs (OCC), effective April 22, 2025. With an exceptional track record in organizational leadership, governance, and strategic management, Abbey is set to bring a wealth of expertise and a forward-thinking approach to the organization.

Diabo's professional journey demonstrates extensive experience in overseeing organizational structures and implementing strategic initiatives. Her most recent role was as the Manager of Human Resources at Kateri Memorial Hospital Centre, and she has previously excelled in various management positions, including roles as a Recruiting Lead and Administrative Manager. Diabo's ability to inspire and manage high-performing teams has been a cornerstone of her success.

"We are thrilled to welcome Abbey Diabo to this critical position," said Ohén:ton Í:rate ne Ratitsénhaenhs Cody Diabo. "Her leadership experience and dedication to organizational excellence make her a perfect fit for our team. We are confident she will play a key role in advancing our priorities and strategic goals."

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Ms. Diabo holds a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Business Administration specializing in Human Resources Management.

The position of Director of the OCC was last filled by the late Andrew Delisle Jr., who left the MCK in 2007. The Unit has since functioned without a Director.
