Nathalie Murray, new Director of the Organizational Development Unit

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 25, Ohiarikhó:wa/July 2025) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) is pleased to announce that Nathalie Murray has been selected as the successful candidate for Director of the Organizational Development Unit.

With a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a Bachelor of Information Technology with a minor in Business Management, Nathalie brings an exceptional blend of policy expertise, technical acumen, and management insight. Formerly a Project Manager who spearheaded the creation of the Kanien'kehá:ka Rights and Research

Office within the Office of the Council of Chiefs, she now steps into a pivotal position focused on enhancing organizational capacity across all units within the MCK.

“This role is focused on building the frameworks, policies, and processes that strengthen the foundation of our organization,” said Executive Administrative Officer Dawn Marquis-Deere. “Nathalie’s expertise will help pave the way for sustainable progress at the MCK.”

Murray began her role on Monday, July 7, 2025. The MCK wishes her all the best in her new position.
