Update on the process for the proposed Kahnawà:ke Tobacco Law

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 25 Ohiarikhó:wa/July 2025) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK), in collaboration with the Tobacco Working Group, wishes to update the community on the status of the proposed Kahnawà:ke Tobacco Law.

The first draft of the proposed Kahnawà:ke Tobacco Law was developed and approved by the community through the Community Decision Making and Review Process. Following a Legal review of the proposed law, it was revealed that eleven (11) points were changed and now require further discussion with the community.

In the coming weeks, community engagement opportunities will be offered to provide information on the eleven points and to collect any additional questions, comments, and feedback. This will be followed by an appearance on K1037 to report on the results of the kiosks, including any feedback.

Please note the following engagement events:

- Tuesday, July 29 - K1037 Tetewathá:ren update
- Thursday, August 14 - Kiosk at Kahnawà:ke Services Complex lobby (1 to 4pm)
- Wednesday, August 20 - Kiosk at Kahnawà:ke Services Complex lobby (1 to 4pm)
- Tuesday, August 26 - K1037 Tetewathá:ren 12 – 12:30pm

Additional information can be requested by contacting Ratsénhaienhs Jeffrey Diabo or Ratsénhaienhs Ryan Montour at 450-632-7500.
