Portfolio Updates for the Month:

July 2025

The first week of September started off with the gaming working group mandate, followed by a site visit in St Remi for future returned land. The Housing reconciliation meetings have continued through out the first week.

The second week of September I attended the Peacekeepers Service Board meeting as well as going on K103 Radio to announce the collaboration between SRU/Connecting Horizons on the challenger baseball game which happened over the weekend of September 13. I attended an internal credit management meeting and updated the client contact list for mortgage holders.

I participated in the Kahnawake Search and Rescue meeting at PSD. Elderly concerns were addressed at the Golden Age Club. I attended the Walk Towards Recovery and shared my personal story to community members.

I attended the Peacekeepers Sworn in Ceremony. My role as Public Safety Portfolio Chief,

A community meeting took place at the end of the month, there were suggestions from community members to talk about the membership law. I also had the opportunity to host the former attorney general, Jody Wilson-Raybould at the Mohawk Council in the Large Conference room after a community member brought her around the community. Lastly, Housing reconciliation meetings continued.
