PRESS RELEASE

Kahnawake Peacekeepers address ATV misuse in the community

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 13 Onerahtókha/April 2026) The Kahnawake Peacekeepers are advising the community of the beginning of operations focused on All-Terrain Vehicle (ATV) misuse within the community. These operations are necessary due to an increase in driving complaints received from community members, as well as multiple collisions resulting in injuries to ATV users.

ATV users must:

- Be over the age of 16 years
- Possess a valid driver’s permit
- Have valid civil liability insurance for an amount of no less than $500,000
- Possess an ATV permit issued by the Kahnawake Peacekeepers
- Wear a helmet
- Not carry more passengers than there are available seats
- Obey all posted road signs
- Not operate the vehicle in any way that could endanger a person’s life or safety
- Not operate ATVs on roadways, except for up to 90 meters when crossing from trail to trail

ATV users not adhering to the ATV laws may be subject to fines, and their vehicle may be impounded.
