Lloyd Phillips selected as the Commissioner of Public Security

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 14 Onerahókha/April 2026) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) is pleased to announce that Lloyd Phillips has been selected as the Commissioner of Public Security.

Mr. Phillips brings more than three decades of experience in public service, governance, and community safety. A longtime employee of the MCK, he has served the community in numerous leadership roles throughout his career.

He served as Council Chief (1996-2006, 2009-2015), Public Sector Advisor to the Quebec Regional Chief (2007-2009), and OCC Project Leader in 2016. He returned to Council in 2018, then transitioned to Commissioner of Public Safety, a role he held until 2025. Most recently, he served as Chief Political Advisor from 2025 until April 2026.

“As Public Safety Portfolio lead, I’ve had the privilege of working closely with Lloyd Phillips for many years,” said Ratsénhahienhs Ryan Montour. “His professionalism, leadership, and deep commitment to the well-being of our community have always set a high standard. We look forward to the continued strength and stability his leadership brings to Kahnawà:ke.”

Lloyd Phillips began his new position on April 7, 2026.
